

Sonic Neon Summit

Parental Permission & Release Form

Sonic Neon Summit (SNS) is an annual convention celebrating the artistic expressions of fans of Sonic the Hedgehog and related characters and artwork. No special concessions are being made for the attendance of minors, but they are allowed to attend. Please carefully read the rules below.

THIS FORM MUST BE NOTARIZED IF YOU WILL NOT BE PRESENT

- If your child is under 16 (born after June 13th, 2009), you will need to supervise them at all times.
  - Convention staff cannot and will not supervise your child.

You and your child will be ejected from the convention if your child is left unsupervised.
- If your child is between 16 and 18 (born after June 13th, 2007 but before June 13th, 2009), your child may attend unsupervised.
- You are responsible for ensuring your child obeys convention policies (<https://sonicneon.org/attend/information>), whether or not you are present.
- Policy violations by either you or your child will result in revocation of both your memberships.
- SNS is an unsupervised environment intended for all ages and is not responsible for the conduct of attendees. Parent agrees to indemnify and hold harmless both SNS and the Grand Sierra Resort, and both companies' officers, directors, agents, volunteers, and employees with respect to all activities associated with, or any damages arising out of SNS and from any cause of action of any nature arising from their child's participation in SNS. Be aware this convention is intended for all ages, and your child may be exposed to "PG-13" content while in convention space.
